London, United Kingdom, 11th July 2013: Southall Travel has launched a detailed holiday itinerary for wildlife lovers who wish to acquaint themselves with India's much famed fauna. Southall Travel's "On the Tiger Trail" covers a number of Indian destinations, presenting not only the 'wild aspect' of the country but also the historical and cultural one.

The itinerary includes visits to top tourist destinations like Delhi, Jaipur, Ranthambor, Bharatpur, Agra, Kanha, Bandavgarh and Khajuraho.

On one hand, tourists can check out the wonderful string of heritage and historic structures at places like Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. On another, destinations such as Ranthambor National Park, Kanha National Park and Bandavgarh National Park offer an expansive view of the country's incredible natural wealth. Apart from the tiger, explorers can expect to catch the sight of a host of other animals like panther, hyena, fox, sloth bear, wild boar and marsh crocodile as well as a variety of resident and migratory birds.

Southall Travel's "On the Tiger Trail" allows holiday makers to enjoy 16 nights/17 days in India at prices starting from as low as £2109 per person. The price includes international flights, domestic flights, assisted transfers, accommodation, meal plan, jungle safari and services of local agent and tour guide.

"India is renowned all over the world for its phenomenal wealth of wild. We have integrated the best Indian offerings and have put together a holiday experience that's sure to quench the animal lover's craving for something extraordinary. And the pocket-friendly prices we are offering make the holiday package even more irresistible," noted a Southall Travel spokesman.

The exclusive deal offered by the UK based travel operator is available over the course of 2013 between 10th July and 15th September for select dates.
