London, United Kingdom, 05 August 2013: Southall Travel has announced the launch of a comprehensive holiday itinerary for the southern part of India. The UK based travel agency's 'Splendours of South India' tour includes a visit to region's all key tourist stopovers like Chennai, Pondicherry, Tanjore, Trichy, Madurai, Munnar and Cochin.

It is a 15 nights / 16 days' holiday tour that allows a comprehensive insight into the history, culture and architecture of South India. 'Splendours of South India' allows vacationers to explore the beautiful temples at Pondicherry and to take pleasure in the wonderful wildlife at Periyar. One can take in the insurmountable beauty of the Cochin backwaters and experience life at Munnar, a hill resort nestled in the midst of flourishing tea and cardamom plantations. Few nights at the Mararikulam beach are also thrown in this reasonably-priced tour being promoted by Southall Travel.

Holiday makers can enjoy all these beautiful South Indian locations at prices starting from as low as £1655 per person. The price includes international flights tickets, domestic flights tickets, assisted transfers, accommodation, meal plan, jungle safari, train travel, and services of local agent and tour guide.

"Southern India is unquestionably the country's architectural and cultural epicentre. 'Splendours of South India' is a perfect proposition for keen vacationers who wish to unravel the myriad offerings of the region in a consummate and unhurried manner. And with Southall Travel's pocket-friendly prices, holidaymakers can well remain in their budget," said a Southall Travel spokesman.

'Splendours of South India' is available for a selected period only, between 1st August and 15th September. For detailed info and terms and conditions on this special holiday tour, visit www.southalltravel.co.uk
