Southall, Middlesex based tour and travel operator, Southall Travel has launched new offer for Thailand holidays.

The offer includes a stay at the Ramada Plaza Menam Riverside, Bangkok's top five-star resort. The package for 5 nights is available at £679. And for longer stays at the five-star hotel, special holiday deals for 7 nights and 10 nights are available at discounted prices of £749 and £855, respectively.

Ramada Plaza Menam Riverside Hotel is luxury property that lies majestically along the banks of Bangkok's Chao Phraya River. The location of the property is ideally situated for international travellers landing in the city as the hotel is just 40 minutes from Bangkok's International airport. Bangkok's Silom Street, a popular shopping and entertainment avenue, is also just a few minutes away for the guests who are opting for Ramada Plaza. The five-star has a string of suitors among the gourmands too as the place features a fine gamut of restaurants, bars and lounges.

Southall Travel's has Bangkok as one of its highest selling destination and the Sales Director seemed excited at the launch of deal and hoped travellers would take advantage of the special discount deal for their Thailand holidays.

"Our special holiday offer is sure to encourage tourists who are willing to experience luxury but are apprehensive of spiralling costs on their Thailand holidays," he said.

The special discount package is subject to availability. For terms and conditions and more info on the Bangkok luxury deal, one can check out Southall Travel's website, www.southalltravel.co.uk
