London 10 April 2013: Allowing business and leisure vacationers in Delhi to enjoy luxury without spending a bomb on holiday packages for India, Southall Travel has announced a new affordable luxury deal for India's capital city. The UK-based travel and tour operator is offering a stay at The Park Hotel at a special price of £699 (B&B) for 3 nights. Guests can also enjoy longer stays at Delhi's 5-star property. For 5 nights, guests need to pay just £775 and for 7-night stay one needs to shell out £849.

The offer is available for a certain period during the months of April to June and includes return flights as well as accommodation. April and May are the months that will witness non-stop cricketing action in the country. A number of Indian Premier League matches are scheduled to take place in Delhi. Those opting to plan their holidays in the city during the period shall not only enjoy special packages offered by Southall Travel but may also plan to take in the riveting on-field action of IPL T20.

"New Delhi is a destination of choice for both business and leisure vacationers in India and with the introduction of new holiday deal during April-June, cost-effectiveness is ensured too. And with the IPL happening, the offer becomes all the more attractive," said a Southall Travel's sales representative.

The special luxury holiday offer is likely to impress mid-range travellers as well as sports lovers seeking to tour the capital city in the beginning of summer season. The offer is subject to availability. Southall Travel's website, www.southalltravel.co.uk can be referred for terms and conditions and other details.

The Park's location in the heart of Delhi's thriving business and entertainment hub, Connaught Place, is one of its major highlights. The 5-star property is close to Indira Gandhi International Airport as well. The hotel features several restaurants & bars that promise sating eating experience to all.
