London 01 May 2013: Southall Travel has come up with a new holiday package for those who aspire for luxurious vacations but without spending a large amount. The Indian travel specialist that operates out of the UK is offering highly attractive Mumbai holiday deals. A stay at the 5-star The Leela Kempinski is being offered at a special price of £745 (B&B) for 3-nights. The offer is available only for the months of May and June.

For holiday makers who wish to enjoy Leela Kempinski's hospitality a bit longer, a 5-night and 7-night holiday package is being offered at exclusive price of £909 and £1075, respectively.

"We are confident that luxury vacationers would be attracted by our new Mumbai holiday packages and they would take advantage of this wonderful opportunity," revealed a statement from Southall Travel.

Southall Travel's special offer includes return flights and accommodation and is subject to availability. This new deal is likely to score with mid-range vacationers who are opting for India holidays during the off-season. Though climatic conditions in most parts of the country are scorching in May-June, Mumbai, being a coastal city, has agreeable temperatures even during peak summers. The usual peak season crowd would be missing at several of the city's tourist venues, making it easy for vacationers to travel around and enjoy the sights. Also, sports enthusiasts would be able to catch IPL's live cricketing action in the month of May. Several IPL matches are scheduled to be held in Mumbai.
