According to the reports, nearly 8,000 people have died and thousands more have been rendered homeless by the devastating earthquake that hit the Himalayan country on 25th April, 2015. Plenty of tourist places, including UNESCO World Heritage sites in the Kathmandu Valley have been destroyed by the quake.

“We share the grief and the loss of thousands of Nepalese people. We pray to god to rest the departed souls in peace and give strength to their families to deal with the tragedy,” Mr. Jaymin Borkhatria, Southall Travel’s Director of Sales, said.

Mr. Borkhatria, who had expressed hope for Raas Garba to be greeted by an enthusiastic response from the people, further said, “People, businesses, agencies and government organisations from across the world have come together to support Nepal in this hour of need. We are proud to be a part of such a noble cause and hope that this event will gather significant funds for Nepal and will encourage others to actively participate in the cause”.
